Parking Ordinance In

To Go Into Effect February 19; Legion Patrol To Help Enforce

Parking regulations for designated congested areas in the unincorporated areas of the County of Santa Clara were passed Monday in Ordinance No. 450 by the Board of Supervisors of Santa Clara County.

In particular, the streets of Campbell were designated for the folowing motor vehicle parking regulations:

Campbell avenue will have two hour parking limits along any portion of the northern and southern sides except with a fifteen minute parking zone in front of the United States Postoffice; no parking at any time in front of the fire station situated on the south side of Campbell avenue, or within 15 feet of any of the various fire hydrants located in the congested zone.

A passenger loading zone has been establshed in front of the motion picture theatre on the south side of Campbell avenue; angle parking will be permitted in front of the Campbell Union Elementary School with no time limitations imposed for the motor vehicles.

Bus loading zones have been established by the ordinance on the east and west sides of Central avenue on the corner beginning at a point nine feet north of the curb line of Campbell avenue and continuing for 45 feet on the west side and 48 feet on the east side.

A new taxi stand will replace the old location, with the taxi zone now being located on the west side of Central avenue beginning at a point 57 feet north of the northern curb line of Campbell avenue and continuing northerly a distance of 21 feet.

A loading zone on the east side of Harrison avenue beginning at the intersection of Campbell avenue and continuing north a distance of 310 feet has also been established.

Signs will be erected as to the parking limits when the ordinance goes into effect 30 days after termination of the legal publication. It is understood that enforcement of the regulations will be carried out by members of the Campbell American Legion patrol working with the county officers. Authorization for the patrol members to carry out the enforcement duties will be drawn up by Howard Campen of the County Council, according to Joseph McKinnon, supervisor.

McKinnon was in Campbell Tuesday to check on the proposed locations of the bus and taxi zoning regulations, and at that time he conferred with Rex Kaber of the Legion patrol concerning enforcement of the new regulations.

The ordinance does not cover any portion of Winchester Road, but may be amended at any time the need arises.

Former Campbell Co-Operative Drier Head Dies In N. Y.

Notice has been received in Campbell of the death in New York City Thursday of Edward Hopkins, 67, former Campbell resident for many years.

He left this area three and one-half years ago to become manager of his father's firm, J. L. Hopkins Company, wholesale drug concern, in New York.

Hopkins was a former director of Campbell Cooperative Drier and was instrumental in its founding. The deceased was also a director of Campbell Local, California Prune and Apricot Growers' Association. He was an active member of the San Jose Elks Lodge.

The former Campbell resident leaves his wife, Mrs. Marie Hopkins, Pollard Road, Campbell; a daughter, Mrs. Jane Reese, San Jose; grandson, David Reese, San Jose and two sisters in New York.

Funeral services were held in New York Friday.

Campbell Grade School Hoopsters Trounce Cupertino

Campbell Elementary School's "A" and "B" quintets scored a double win over Cupertino in basketball contests played on the local courts Friday, January 13.

The "A" squad was victorious by a 30-12 margin, while the "'B" five triumphed 22-18. This win placed the local Bees in first place in their division of the newly organized Santa Clara County Basketball League for Elementary Schools.

Players of the "A" team include Young, Kelly, Hansen, Webb, Hill, Foglia, Francheschini, Davis, Waymire, Buck, Garrison, and McCallister. The "B" roster finds Hoover, Barnett, Beth, Taylor, Jordan, Gallego, Larson, Zisch, Plymale, Bianicci, Manzoni, Vossler, and Cooper wearing the Campbell colors.

C of C Board Gives Light Support; Reese, Jones Quit

Support of the Campbell American Legion Post's efforts to obtain traffic lights at Campbell Avenue and Winchester Road was voted Monday evening by the Campbell Chamber of Commerce board of directors at their monthly meeting. Secretary Forrest Reese was authorized to send a letter to the County Board of Supervisors supporting the move.

During the session the board received the resignations of Reese and board member Fred Jones Sr. No official action was taken on these by the board, Reese, in his statement, said lack of cooperation within the chamber plus poor health and the press of his business made it necessary for him to resign. Jones explained that his business, too, was too heavy to allow active participation in the chamber business.

LIGHTING FUND SHORT

Frank Accardi, chairman of the Christmas street lighting program reported he had collected $218 in merchant contributions toward expenses of the lighting, while total expenses amounted to $309.63, leaving a balance of $178.33, whereupon the chamber treasurer announced there was not a sufficient balance in the chamber treasury to meet the bill.

Dobie Jeffers was named chairman of the chamber's membership drive which will begin next Tuesday.

Balance of the meeting was turned over to Old Settlers Day plans and recommendations for regulations which they felt should be included in the county parking ordinance sections on Campbell. Meanwhile, the parking ordinance had been passed that afternoon by the County Board of Supervisors.

PARKING

Provisions for the Campbell section of the ordinance were compiled by Fourth District Supervisor Joseph McKinnon from information gained through personal study of the local parking problem, and through conferences with local businessmen.

In general, the points which the chamber decided to recommend Monday night coincide with those of the new ordinance.

A special meeting of all board members has been called for next Monday night when the members will spend the entire time on Old Settlers' Day planning.

District Lt. Gov. Brings Message On Kiwanis 35th Year

Verne Owen of San Jose, newly installed lieutenant-governor of this district of Kiwanis International, gave a stirring talk on Kiwanis ideals and objectives when he addressed the Campbell club at their weekly luncheon meeting on Tuesday noon.

Introduced by Chairman of the Day Carl B. Field, Owen read the message of othe international president, J. Hugh Jackson, in observance of the thirty-fifth anniversary of Kiwanis. Following this he gave a review of the origin and growth of the organization.

During the meeting Henry Jewell was awarded a three-year perfect attendance pin. Visitors at the session were Leonard Baptist of Campbell and Paul Rising of San Jose.

Pete Young was the student guest of the day and was introduced by C. P. Klassen.

The musical section of the program included two vocal selections by Dotty Atkinson, "Dear Heart and Gentle People," and "Dreamer's Holiday." She was accompanied at the piano by Lorraine Wood. An instrumental number was played by Gilda Mazzanti, violinist, who performed the "Meditation" by Massenet. Her accompanist was Joline Howard.

Lawrence E. Hendricks To Be Seated As Worshipful Master At Forty-Seventh Annual Installation Of Mason Officers

The IOOF Hall in Campbell will be the scene of the forty-seventh annual installation of officers to be held Saturday, January 21, at 8:00 p.m. by Charity Lodge No. 362, F.&A.M.

Worshipful Nels H. Johnson, inspector of the 53rd Masonic Dispast master of the Campbell group, will take over the master of ceremonies duties.

NEW OFFICERS

Leading the group of officers for 1950 is Lawrence E. Hendricks, who is to be installed as the worshipful master. Other new officers include Kenneth K. Dunton, senior warden; Edward A. Merrill, junior warden; Roy G. Archibald, treasurer; T. Arthur Robinson, secretary; Edwin B. Parker, chaplain, James H. DeVaughn Jr., senior deacon, William B. Enochs, junior deacon, Williams B. Enochs, junior deacon; Dean R. Chamberlin, marshall; Donald F. Hartman, senior steward; Joseph C. Agostinho, junior steward; and George E. Hartwell, tiler.

John Lewis McDonald will be the installing organist for the occasion. Soloist will be Marjorie Martin.

Dancing is scheduled to follow the installation with John L. McDonald's orchestra playing music for members and their friends. Refreshments will be served.

IOOF INSTALLS NEW OFFICERS

Thayer Lyons was installed as the new noble grand of the Morning Light Lodge No. 42, IOOF, in impressive ceremonies Thursday evening at the IOOF Hall.

Other new officers taking their chairs included Comaron Falco, vice-noble grand; Archie Brydon, recording secretary; Joseph Meckler, financial secretary, and Arthur Robertson, treasurer. Serving as installing officer was Deputy grand master Paul Williams of the Los Gatos IOOF lodge, assisted by his staff. Outgoing noble grand is Harley W. Poore.

Editorial

Campbell's main representative civic organization, the Campbell Chamber of Commerce, will begin a program of renewed participation in and leadership of community affairs this month. Opening step in the plan is a determined campaign for a substantial increase in its membership. This membership drive will be sparked next Tuesday with a campaign breakfast at the Blue Bell Cafe.

George "Dobie" Jeffers, chairman of the drive, and 10 fellow members who have volunteered their assistance, will exchange preparatory notes and ideas at the gathering before setting out to enlist every Campbell merchant, businessman and professional man in the move to build up a large, truly representative body in this community.

So long as Campbell remains unincorporated it can have no official spokesman or council to give voice to its views or its wishes, or to represent it on those occasions when its development or its welfare is concerned. Lacking this, the community has found unofficial leadership in the past in the Chamber of Commerce. Although the history of the Chamber has been a spasmodic one of energetic labors in behalf of Campbell and periods of inertia, this organization has accomplished a number of important objectives.

Of these accomplishments the most important of recent date have been formation of the Campbell lighting district, the recent resurfacing of Campbell and Railway Avenues, sponsorship of this community's big celebration, Old Settlers' Day on February 22; annual installation of street decorations at Christmas time, and the installation of street signs in the community as well as directional signs for Campbell in the county.

Realizing the need for a more effective program within the chamber establishment, the present active members have set themselves the task of broadening their scope of activities. This requires an enlarged membership and, therefore, the chamber has announced the coming membership drive. Although dues in most chambers are considerably higher, those for the Campbell group are $10 per year now.

If the drive is successful, the Chamber of Commerce will be financially and numerically capable of greater endeavors in behalf of the town. It has been suggested that a strong membership could enable the group to establish its own office with a permanent secretary-manager whose daily task would be the effective representation of the community both locally, in the county, the state and the nation.

Should so admirable a goal be accomplished, then this community of some 11,000 persons could look to a future considerably more promising than that which is its vague prospect today. T. J.

Old Settlers' Day Committee Heads Release Details On Program Plans For Campbell's Annual Big Event

Planning moved into high gear this week for the annual Campbell celebration, Old Settlers' Day on February 22. Campbell Chamber of Commerce officials, at their meeting Monday night allotted $150 for prizes and awards for the parade committee, and $20 for the Whiskerino contest. Twenty dollars was appropriated to feed members of the visiting bands at the Old Settlers' Day luncheon.

Eugene Barnes of the Campbell Press, chairman of the Queen contest committee, announced today that registration is now open for the contest. Girls may sign up now, and tickets will be issued next Wednesday, January 25, in order that all contestants may begin the campaign at the same time.

All horsemen interested in riding in a body in the Old Settlers' Day parade are asked to contact Ira Grim at the Campbell Post Office, or Ray Strong, 30 E. Campbell Avenue.

POINT BASIS

Selection of the Queen will be on a point basis. Each contestant will receive one vote for each ticket sold for the Old Settlers' Day dance or evening show. Tickets are 50c for the show, $1 for the dance. Student tickets for the dance will be 50 cents. Deadline for turning in tickets will be 4 p.m. February 20.

The winner, who will be named Queen of Old Settlers' Day, will receive many prizes. A full list of the awards will be published in next week's issue of the Press. Merchants throughout the community are contributing to the large stock of prizes to be awarded her. Included in these is a square dance costume to be donated by Rachel's.

Two runners up in the contest will be attendants at the crowning of the Queen. This ceremony will be conducted at the dance on the 22nd.

RUSTIC MELLERDRAMMER

The evening show, which will precede the dance, will include a one-act mellerdrammer by the Footlighters, a minstrel show and a variety show. Entire proceeds will go to the Chamber of Commerce.

"The City Slicker and Our Little Nell," by Leland Price, will be a rustic comedy set in the home of the Beards, a backwoods farming family. Its cast of Footlighters includes Budd Levenberg as Frank Beard, the father; Jean Perdue as Minnie Beard, the mother; Betty Legg as Nellie, the youngest daughter of the Beards, and heroine of the play; Carolyn Coons, Moorpark school teacher, as Violet, the older daughter.

The part of Dan Tucker, Nellie's backwoods suitor is still open. Phil Cosentino, Campbell High School grad in the class of '49, plays the local clown. Marion Nelson is the grandmother Beard or Aunty Marthy.

Kathy Kollmer is the villainess, Claribel Wirtle, and her male cohort is villainous Sheridan Douglas, played by Bert Legg.

This will be a gay nineties production, with Dean Chamberlin handling the director's duties, while Louella Devich and Ellen Lanphear serve as prompters.

Footlighters met Thursday night at Mrs. Ida Price's barn to cast the play. Rehearsals will be held each Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday night until February 22 at the high school. Anyone interested in joining in the fun of the play production is asked to contact Dean Chamberlin at the school.

OLD SETTLERS' DAY PARADE

Parade chairman James Brand has issued a general call to all in the community to get on the band wagon, enter a float or join in the parade, which will be a county-wide celebration.

"It will be a chance to have a little fun and frolic, a glorious and inexpensive way to do some good advertising, to share the traditions of Campbell with the old timers, and an opportunity to join your friends and neighbors in the community spirit and good will," Brand announced.

All individuals should enter the parade, he added, and all merchants and businesses are urged to participate in this big day. There

Students Receive On-Job Training In New Class

The only such high school student on-the-job training program in the county is being conducted in Campbell High School for students who will not go on to college and who have the right attitude to enter the retail selling field after high school.

Fourteen senior students are enrolled in the course which was begun during the fall semester. They attend classes during the morning, then work weekday afternoons and Saturdays as beginners in local and San Jose stores.

Purpose of the educational program is to give as much training as possible during the students' last year. The school is cooperating with businessmen for this on-the-job training. Besides the regular study program the pupils discuss their experiences during their working hours on the previous day. They receive beginner pay, and, to date, the 14 have earned a total of $2,681.

Instructor George Kemp emphasizes that the program is not effective if there are no available jobs for the students. The state program requires that the student must receive working experience during the one-year class, in addition to the class work. The lack of employment can be one of the limiting factors in this program, he said.

Most of the 14 in the Campbell High class are employed in San Jose. Those few who are employed locally work at Clark's Drug Store, Campbell Cleaners, Campbell Pastry Shop and Cambrian Hardware.

Kemp asked cooperation of the merchants in the program. Those who wish to provide class members with the necessary on-the-job experience are asked to contact Mr. Kemp at the high school. The program will be continued for a new class next year. Only 30 such school programs are conducted in the entire state.

SHOPPING CENTER, REST HOME, DWELLING PLAN UNDER STUDY; NEW DRIVE-IN THEATER CONTEMPLATED

Two petitions for rezoning in order to establish a shopping center at the intersection of Eden Avenue and Williams Road were taken under advisement by the County Planning Commission Wednesday for further study. Following second public hearing on the petition of Y. Archibald for reclassification of the southwest corner of the intersection from R-1:B-D to C-2, the commission indicated it will study the application in an effort to determine whether this is the proper location for a shopping center. They will take into consideration the traffic flow and street pattern.

The Archibald petition will be considered in connection with that of J. H. Rodda and San Jose Abstract and Title Company to reclassify to C-1-H the southeast corner of the intersection. The Rodda petition already had been taken under advisement. A decision on the two petitions probably will be rendered by the commission at its February 1 meeting.

LIGHT INDUSTRIAL

Application of Marcele McGown for a use permit to manufacture novelties and Christmas ornaments was approved in short order. The light industrial use will be on property located on Bear Creek Road westerly of Los Gatos-Santa Cruz highway.

Recommended for approval by the County Board of Supervisors was the application of J. A. and Margaret Cooper for an adjustment in provisions of the zoning ordinance to permit installation of a gasoline pump island within the required front yard at the northwesterly corner of the intersection of San Jose-Los Gatos Roads and Burton Road. A double setback requirement would have caused the island to have been located too far from the road. Final approval must come from the Supervisors who have final jurisdiction over one of the zoning sections under which the property falls.

Betty Sisson's application for adjustment in zoning provisions covering part of her property on Ginger Lane, abutting on the south side of the corner lot at the southeasterly corner of McArthur Avenue and Ginger Lane, was taken under advisement. She indicated intention to erect a multiple dwelling at the rear of the wedge-shaped lot—No. 33 of Tract 497. A sin the lot.

The commission will investigate to determine whether a private sewage disposal system will function adequately under increased use, and what effect extension of an R-H-3 zone into an R-1 zone will have on neighboring properties.

REST HOME

Robert L. Kline's application for use permit to maintain a rest home at the southwest corner of the Pine Avenue-San Jose-Los Gatos Road intersection also was taken under advisement. Final decision will hinge on a field investigation by the commission. Owners indicated they wished to sell the one-acre property for the rest home use. The present dwelling has two downstairs bedrooms and five upstairs bedrooms. Kline suggested that a third room downstairs could be converted to bedroom or ward use for the rest home. Only ambulatory patients would be accepted. Although there were no actual objections at the hearing, a number of residents of the neighborhood attended the hearing to obtain information on the proposed use.

Frank DiNapoli filed resolution of intention on two pieces of property, planning to erect a drive-in theater on the piece which gains Planning Commission rezoning approval. First public hearing on the two petitions will be held February 15.

Th properties, for which he asks C-1-H zoning are: southeast corner of San Jose-Los Gatos Road and Hamilton Road, now zoned as C-1 and R-1, and the southeast corner of San Jose-Los Gatos Road and Fruitdale Avenue, approximately 40 acres, now in an R-1 zone.

Stephen Foster Program Given At Bethel Meeting

Songs by Stephen Foster highlighted the first 1950 meeting of Bethel 174 of the International Order of Job's Daughters, Campbell. The meeting, held Saturday evening, was presided over by Donna Horn, honored queen, with Jeanne Currie, senior princess, and Janet Coombs, junior princess, assisting her.

Janis Henley, librarian, was chairman for the meeting and wrote her report on Stephen Foster, since the writing day was close to his birthdate. While Janis was giving her report, Mary Lou Cline and Joline Howard sang songs by Foster at appropriate times. They were accompanied on the piano by Louella Rice.

The Bethel was decorated with musical notes and above the officers in the East was a large staff with the notes of the song "My Old Kentucky Home." Tables were decorated in a similar manner with a few of the songs by Stephen Foster.

Next meeting of Bethel 174 will be held on January 28, at 2 p.m. and all parents and persons with proper Masonic relationship are invited.

Garden Design Pointers Given For Club Members

Campbell Garden Club members heard talks on garden designing and current season gardening tips when they held their first meeting of the new year Wednesday at 2 p.m. in the library clubrooms. During the meeting all members were given 1950 membership cards in the California Garden Clubs Inc.

Kenneth S. Mayer, landscape architect, was the principal speaker. His topic was "Designs in Gardens," and he suggested that members make it a point to see the Centennial Home garden in Santa Clara to gain ideas on garden design.

Mrs. Denny Wilson, member of the club, gave a brief talk on "Garden Jobs for January", and another member, Mrs. L. J. Barber, spoke on "Golden Gardens."

Mrs. Percy Lovejoy of Campbell was voted in as a new member upon the resignation of Mrs. C. R. Stumbo who has moved to Pullman, Washington.

Next meeting of the club will be at 2 p.m., Wednesday, February 1, in the library clubrooms, at which time a round-table discussion will be held.

Mrs. Ray Martin Is Vocalist For Country Women

A speech entitled "Beauty of Personal Charm" was presented by Miss Janet Daniels when she addressed the Campbell Country Women's Club Monday afternoon at the Campbell library.

Vocal entertainment was provided by Mrs. Ray W. Martin, who rendered three songs. She sang "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms", "Little Old Lady," and "Prayer Perfect." Mrs. Martin was accompanied by Mrs. David Sanders at the piano.

Miss Daniels, the guest speaker, is a graduate of Aleen oCnroy's Charm School in San Mateo. The beauty expert is planning to open a charm school in San Jose in the near future.

Brightly colored decorations were used in the library setting. Committee members for the Monday affair were Mrs. J. F. Levenberg, chairman, assisted by Mrs. E. E. Lanphear, Mrs. C. L. Ackerman, Mrs. H. M. Sheeder, Mrs. A. D. Rice and Mrs. J. F. Duncan.

Vic Handerkin VFW Auxiliary Plans Box Supper

Vic Handerkin Auxiliary, 3045, Veterans of Foreign Wars, held its regular meeting Jan. 9 at the War Memorial building , Los Gatos with President Verona Goenner presiding.

The following new members were initiated: Dorothy Mortimore, Elizabeth Gough, Betty Regal and Lou Ann Ray.

Plans were made for a Valentine box social on February 18, at the War Memorial Bldg. Each woman attending will take a box to be auctioned to the highest bidder. Entertainment will follow. This social is open to the public and the proceeds will be applied to the ladies auxiliary pledge to the building fund of the War Memorial Building.

Refreshments were served by Sisters Kruger and Goehner.

The next regular meeting will be January 23 at 8 p.m.

Southern California counties still have the county seats they had when first organized.

OUTDOOR CALIFORNIA

LEEVINING, (Mono Co.) In the lonely, rugged terrain of southeastern Mono County, the remnants of California's aboriginal herd of half-a-million antelope are being given another chance to hold their own against the inroads of civilization.

The division of Fish and Game has announced completion of a trapping and transplanting system which moved 50 antelope from their Lassen County home to a less crowded area once inhabited by their ancestors. The 230 mile truck trip through Nevada brought the pronghorns to their new Benton Meadows residence in good condition.

Sixty five of the colorful animals were trapped during the month of December in the lava bed plains east of Susanville. Of the total, two were earmarked for display in the City of Sacramento zoo, two escaped, five were casualties, and six were rejected because of advanced age.

Assistant Game Master Bert F. Knowles, leader of the Federal aid Pittman-Robertson project, reports the release supplements a similar transplanting expedition effected by the State agency in the winter of 1946-47. At that time 32 antelope were released in Mono County.

Another trapping and transplanting operation is planned during the first two weeks in January.

They are trapped on over grazed ranges of northeastern California with the aid of an airplane. Herded, sorted and loaded, they are then taken in flat bed trucks for release in more suitable habitat.

In the past century, agricultural development has driven the once abundant antelope into remote lava bed and woodland country behind the high Sierra. Here, on narrowing ranges, decimated herds have held their own under the watchful eyes of State employees.

In 1949, when the herd was declared too large for the amount of available forage, the Fish and Game Commission announced a limited open hunting season. 348 bucks were taken under special permits. Open seasons were also held in 1942, 1943, 1944, and 1945.

With an estimated State population of between 4,000 and 6,000 head, the Division will attempt to give the antelope a comeback try in a small remaining part of their original habitat which is undeveloped. The goal is an eventual population which will present little threat to Inyo-Mono counties range and crop lands and offer an occasional antelope hunt for California sportsmen.

Four-year-old Lonnie McClain, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald McClain of 739 Fewtrelle Drive, offers a smile to folks who will contribute to the March of Dimes drive which began Monday and will end January 31. A year and a half ago, Lonnie became another of the country's many polio victims. Today, thanks to the March of Dimes' sponsoring organization, the Santa Clara County Chapter, National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, Lonnie, though he walks with a limp, is well on his way to recovery. "We were frantic with worry until the foundation came along," said Lonnie's parents. "We don't know what we would have done if it hadn't been for the March of Dimes. Please give."

TERMINAL ISLAND— An Alhambra angler has reported to the Division of Fish an Game his catch of a rare Monterey Spanish mackerel— the seventh of the species recorded in California in the past 60 years,

The five-pound fish was landed by William Bellinger at the Port Oarnge landing in Newport Beach. He said the mackerel offered strong resistance and took more than 200 yards of line in its first rush.

The Monterey Spanish mackerel was an imported commercial fish species in California between 1870 and 1890. In the 90's it disappeared completely. The first known catch in this century was recorded at San Pedro in 1927.

Bellinger's catch was identified by Assistant Marine Biologist J. E. Fitch at the Division's Terminal Island fisheries laboratory.

SAN FRANCISCO— A two month closed season on the taking of abalones began one hour after sunset, January 14, the California Division of Fish and Game reports. The season reopens March 16.

Sonoma County accounts for nearly 90 per-cent of the Gravenstien apple crop.

Rev. L. J. Osborne Plans Sermon On 'Important Details'

"Important Details" is the topic of the sermon to be preached at the Methodist Church on Sunday morning by the minister, the Rev. Lawrence J. Osborne. Mrs. Earl Buck will sing a soprano solo during the worship service, and the church choir will sing the anthem, "O Come to My Heart, Lord Jesus," by Ambrose.

Savings in the United States in 1949 approximated 200 billion dollars.

Disk Release Chatter Column Starts Today

Vivian Baldwin begins a column this week in the Campbell Press on the latest popular and red seal record issues. She gives reviews of the best selling numbers with reports on the standard of the recordings and views on the standard of the performance.

Mrs. Baldwin, of Baldwin's Music Store, Los Gatos, holds a B.M. degree from the College of the Pacific, and had further study at the University of Southern California and the University of Redlands.

She played clarinet with the Stockton and Fresno Symphony orchestras and is now the organist and choir director of the Los Gatos Presbyterian Church.

Vivian Baldwin is a member of the National Advisory Board on Church, University of Redlands. She is a member and past secretary of the San Jose Chapter, American Guild of Organists. Among her professional performances have been many radio appearances at Stockton and Watsonville.

Mother Of Local Resident Passes At San Jose Home

Mrs. Pearl Edith Smith, 51, mother of Mrs. Thelma Keesling of Campbell, was laid to rest Tuesday at Oak Hill Memorial Park.

The life-long resident of San Jose died Sunday at her home on S. Seventh street after a long illness. Mrs. Smith was a long-time member of the Grace Lutheran Church, S.V.E.A. lodge of San Jose, Garden City Circle of Druids. Mt. Hamilton Grange No. 469, and the Santa Clara County Pomona Grange.

She leaves her husband, Carl E.; two daughters, Mrs. Barbara Hemp of San Francisco and Mrs. Keesling; three sisters, Mrs. Ann Brunette of Sharp Park, Mrs. Helen Morgan of Sacramento and Mrs. Elvera Vail of San Mateo; a brother, Clarence E. Lindstrom of Alhambra, and three grandchildren.

Pallbearers for the funeral were A. D. Brunette, H. D. Morgan, Herman Nelson, J. Walker, F. E. Forsberg, and L. Vail.

Rum accounted for 1.3 per cent of all distilled liquor consumed in the United States in 1948.

Bel Ayre Manor Lots Sold In S. J.

John Den Beeman, San Jose contractor and builder, purchased 15 lots in the Bel Ayre Manor subdivision on Stevens Creek Road at Cypress avenue. Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Wudell were the former owners. Beeman reportedly will construct attractively designed homes of 1250 square feet or larger. Frank Archer represented both buyer and seller while titles were handled by San Jose Abstract and Title Insurance Company.

Organists' Guild Party Guests Of Campbell Group

A delayed New Year's party was held in Campbell Sunday at the Country Woman's clubrooms by the San Jose Chapter, American Guild of Organists. After a brief business meeting the program was a good-time party.

Mrs. Lee Gordon of San Jose performed a tap dance, and her daughter, Miss Leonor Gordon, appeared in an original dance creation. The talented young dancer wore a costume of her own design.

Hostesses for the party were Mrs. E. J. Bergeron of Campbell and Mrs. Gordon. Reginald Greenbrook, also of Campbell, was the host. Their guests were from Santa Cruz, Watsonville, Los Gatos, San Jose and Campbell. Mrs. Cecile Shad was the assisting hostess.

Children's Workers Fellowship Meet

The Santa Clara County Children's Workers Fellowship will meet in the First Christian Church, San Jose, on Monday, January 30, at 7:30 p.m. All church school workers with children are urged to attend.

Amy Bean is chairman of the fellowship.

Santa Clara Lions Hear Atty. Walsh

Attorney Martin S. Walsh of Campbell spoke before the Santa Clara Lions Club Tuesday noon. His subject was the early history of California and the admission of the state to the Union.

Highlight of the affair was the Hawaiian Punch made from an original recipe of Mr. Bergeron. Smorgasbord luncheon followed.

Author G. A. Lathrop Doing Article On SP's Speedy Overnight Merchandiser

A feature article on one of the fastest trains in the United States will soon be published in a national railroad magazine under authorship of Gilbert A. Lathrop, Campbell author.

Mr. Lathrop rode the Southern Pacific's Overnight Merchandise January 16 and 17 from San Francisco to Los Angeles, and is doing a story on the trip and the train.

THE GHOST

Known popularly as The Ghost, the Overnight Merchandise travels at a speed of more than one mile a minute all the way. Two of the trains run nightly, Monthrough Thursday, one traveling to San Francisco from Los Angeles, and the other southbound from the Bay City to Los Angeles. This high speed service enables a Los Angeles merchandiser to place an order by phone with a San Francisco wholesaler up to 3 p.m. Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday, and to have that shipment on his shelf at 9 a.m. the next day, says Lathrop.

The Southern Pacific began The Ghost runs in 1936. During the war they were discontinued, then begun again in 1945. "It's the only LCL (less than carload lot) train on the line, and the average shipment is 450 pounds," Lathrop continued. Each train averages 30 to 60 boxcars.

On the southbound Lathrop rode in the caboose of the train, then returned the following day on the SP Daylight. He expressed appreciation for the fine cooperation and courtesy shown him on both trips.

San Francisco's Montgomery Street was once the city's waterfront.

Anniversary Observance Set

John D. Crummey, Food Machinery Corporation executive, was the speaker Monday at the Campbell Rotary Club weekly session. He spoke on his recent trip to Africa and showed colored motion pictures taken during his travels.

Part of the equipment for this journey was a helicopter. Although some of the pictures shown were taken from this air vantage point, Crummey said his party had difficulty in obtaining permission to fly over the parks and wild life areas. Most of the film shots were made from the back of a truck.

William Maderis was chairman of the day. Fred Jones Jr., was admitted as a new member of Rotary. During the business meeting Rotarians began planning for their observance of the second anniversary of the local club which will be on March 13.

A moment of silence was observed in memory of Frank Silva, Rotarian and superintendent of the Hunt Foods Inc. plant in Campbell, who died Sunday.

Next Monday the Rotarians will hear a talk by Bob Bereford, attorney and local member of the Citizens Committee for the Hoover Report.

WE SALUTE

OUR KIWANIANS!

The Kiwanis Club is essentially a service organization. And it serves our community faithfully without bombast or ballyhoo. These fine men with their weekly luncheon meetings, do a tremendous amount of good. You may hear little about their work among charitable institutions, but it goes on without interruption, and represents, here and throughout the world, one of the greatest combined good-will forces man has ever undertaken. Our Kiwanians are of the highest calibre. They are devoted to the cause of their widespread organization. They deserve the plaudits of every man and woman in this community!

Flood Relief Asked By Home Owners

Flood waters on the Ellen Acres and Ed Yates subdivisions in Cambrian were the basis for a call made on the County Board of Supervisors Monday by eight residents of the area, headed by Mrs. H. B. Roberts of 796 Erin Way.

VOLLMER SCANDAL

Mrs. Roberts stated that water flooding down on their subdivisions from the new Olympia Tract is threatening to make a "Vollmer" scandel here in Campbell. She asks that something be done to drain off the water, which runs from gutter to gutter at least six inches deep, or that the board refuse final approval on the final subdivision map of Olympia Tract which was opened up by Louis and Olympia Battilocchi. Water from the higher-up Olympia Tract floods down Shamrock avenue and then backs up on Casey road approximately 80 feet, and in one instance has washed in and under a residential home.

A water drainage system plus a pumping station to afford relief for the system, is being asked. The women plan to appear before the County Planning Commission on January 30 when the matter will be discussed again. In the meantime approval was withheld from the Olympia Tract subdivision by the Planning Commission.

Community Saddened By Death Of Frank Silva, Hunt Plant Superintendent

Fellow workers and many friends were saddened by the death of Frank C. Silva, 47, superintendent of the Campbell branch of Hunt Foods, Inc., who succumbed at his 1149 Lincoln Court home in San Jose last Sunday after a long illness.

The popularity of the cannery official was manifested last year when fellow employes and friends rallied to donate blood to the ill Silva while he was a patient at O'Connor Hospital. The Santa Clara Valley Regional Blood Center's Mobile Unit visited Campbell on September 14, receiving a total of 70 pints of blood from Silva's co-workers.

POPULAR OFFICIAL

When the information was passed around that a few close friends were planning to donate blood in Silva's behalf, some 125 employes of the Hunt Foods plant volunteered their blood. Although a number of volunteers were turned down due to colds and other factors, 70 pints of the life-giving frluid were accepted by the mobile unit from the plant employes and friends.

Silva expressed his deepest appreciation for the large group of fellow workers who volunteered blood. Because the amount contributed was far in excess of his needs, he suggested that the balance be used to form a nucleus of a blood pool for cannery workers. Silva proposed that the mobile unit could pay regular visits to this community to gather blood donations, thus building credit for Campbell as well as for the cannery.

When Hunt Foods, Inc., purchased the Drew Canning Company plant in Campbell in 1946, Mr. Silva, superintendent of the Drew plant, continued in that capacity for the Hunt concern, a position which he held until his untimely death. No replacement for him has been announced.

Mr. Silva began work at the Drew plant in 1932. He was the assistant superintendent and was promoted to superintendent in 1940. Prior to joining the local plant, he worked for the Drew company in San Jose for two years. He had lived in San Jose for 18 years, moving there from Niles where he had been employed at the Schuckl cannery from 1923 to 1932.

He was a native of Sacramento and received his schooling in Selma.

FOLK DANCE ENTHUSIAST

An accomplished horseman, he was a member of the Santa Clara County Sheriff's Posse. In addition, he belonged to the Campbell Rotary Club and the Sara-Cats, Saratoga-Los Gatos folk dancing group. He joined the latter organization three years ago and was active in planning folk dance festivals in which the group participated, and aiding in promoting the growing enthusiasm for folk dancing throughout the state.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at 10 a.m. in San Jose. Interment was at Oak Hill Memorial Park.

Mr. Silva is survived by his widow, Angeline; his mother, Mrs. Mary G. Harris of San Lorenzo; two sisters, Mrs. Mary Costa of Fresno and Mrs. Delsie Cotta of Visalia; and six brothers, Tony and Joseph Silva of Campbell, Alfonso Silva of Hayward, Manuel Silva of Centerville, George Silva of Visalia and Anthony Silva of Niles.

Among the pallbearers were three of Silva's fellow Rotarians, Forrest Reese, Bill Maderis and Homer Hyde. Eighteen other local Rotarians attended the last rites for the Late Rotarian. In addition to the three Rotary men, the three other pallbearers were Harold Espinosa, Frank Baxter and Jack Ruscigno of the Santa Clara County Sheriff's Posse.

STUDENTS AGAIN TAKE RESPONSIBILITY FOR CAMPBELL MARCH OF DIMES DRIVE

Campbell High School's Student Council again this year has accepted responsibility for handling the entire Campbell area section of the 1950 March of Dimes. Students take the lead in conducting this drive in the community in the belief that this is one campaign which affects them more than any other since it is part of the fight against infantile paralysis. This is the only town in the county in which the drive is handled entirely by the school students.

Lawrence J. Hill, high school district superintendent, is in charge of the Campbell drive. High school instructor George Egling supervises the student work.

First activity in the drive was conducted today at the high school where a collection of $65.45 was made at assembly period. Next collection will be at the student basketball game Thursday noon.

HI-Y CANVASS

Hi-Y and Tri-Y clubs of the school will canvass the town for the March of Dimes, and canisters have been placed in local stores for contributions.

The grammar schools conducted their drives this week and returns will probably be in for these about the first of the week. The high school drive will cover a two-week period.

To date the total collection is 87.28, including the high school assembly donations, $27.33 from the Campbell Kiwanis Club, the first organization to send in a contribution; and Mrs. Ernest Nelson's voluntary contribution of $4.50.

Grand total of the 1949 campaign for the entire community and schools was $1,299, compared to the 1948 total of $687. Top scorer for last year was Cambrian School which, although it only has a small student body, sent in $285.88. Second highest in school collections was that of the high school, $170.82. Campbell Grammar School turned in $158, and the Kiwanis Club topped contributions of all local organizations with a check for $35.

Explorer Scouts Thank Public For Buying Trees

Explorer Scouts Post II, whose members are residents of Saratoga, Cupertino, Campbell and other west valley communities, has issued its thanks to the people of the area for patronizing their Christmas tree lot in Campbell.

For the second year the lot was provided by the Sunnymount Theaters without charge. The supply of beautiful trees attracted many buyers and the results were appreciated by the scouts who use the funds to finance their activities.

Americana, History and Horseflesh

Detail from "The Buffalo Drive," mural-size painting by W. R. Leigh. To provide the winter's food before the bison's migration, Indians drove whole herds over cliffs while the sun was hot enough to cure the meat.

W. R. Leigh

INDELIBLY inscribed on the minds of all interested in art, Americana or horseflesh are the names of Remington, Russell and Leigh. The latest welcome news coming to this public is a circuit of exhibits featuring a variety of paintings by W. R. Leigh that will tour the United States from coast to coast.

Besides the more or less permanent exhibitions on display at Grand Central Art Galleries, New York, Gump's Galleries in San Francisco and Frank Phillips' Woolaroc Museum in Oklahoma, an important show is to be given January 8 through 22 at The Maryland Institute, Baltimore, where Leigh, as a lad of 14 from Martinsburg, West Virginia, obtained his first instruction. Vital to American history are such canvases as "The Buffalo Drive," "The Buffalo Hunt," "Land of the Navahos" and "Open Season on Bighorn," included in this show. A later display is announced for February at the Washington County Museum of Fine Art at Hagerstown, Maryland, and a special exhibit of burros and Western ponies at the Heard Museum in Phoenix, Arizona, during the tourist season.

Leigh's cloud studies and others made in Africa during his two trips there for the American Museum of Natural History are scheduled for a large number of museums and art galleries throughout the U. S. A.

Descended from the first settlers of Virginia and with the blood of Pocahontas also in his veins, the artist was stirred in his childhood by accounts of Custer's last stand; and a buffalo robe — his prized possession — inspired him even then with the overwhelming passion to depict these phases of American life in which Indian, buffalo and cowboy were then playing vital parts.

Study abroad, years of travel and life in the West have culminated in the success of Leigh's early dreams and ambitions with the result that The Maryland Institute, his alma mater, has invited him, as their most distinguished pupil, to exhibit his paintings in their Baltimore Gallery.

Edna L. Waldo Tells AAUW Of Best Sellers

"Who Would Write A Book About You?" was the topic of guest speaker Mrs. Edna LaMoore Waldo when she addressed the meeting of the Los Gatos-Saratoga branch of the American Association of University Women last Monday afternoon at Montalvo.

Mrs. Waldo, who is a member of the Los Gatos branch of the AAUW, is an editor, reviewer and author. She is a former college instructor and has considerable experience in libraries. The guest speaker's newspaper experience includes work on the Milwaukee Journal, where she was reporter and columnist. Mrs. Waldo has also been editor of various magazines.

In 1939 Mrs. Waldo was declared winner of the Penwoman's national non-fiction award. She is also the author of three historical books and has written several magazine articles, non-fiction drama, features in Survey, Country Gentleman, Outdoor Life and The Woman.

Her speech at Monday's meeting presented a unique discussion of personality and amateur psychology interwoven with the history of the best sellers and current references. Mrs. MacSwain Jones presided at the business meeting preceding the speech.

Tea was served to the guests following the program. Mrs. Robert T. Aitken and Mrs. George Martin were co-hostesses and were assisted by Mesdames B. B. Payne, Charles Ramsdell, Benjamin Nerenberg, H. C. Wilson, Fred Callis, Eldon Fisher, Benjamin Bledsoe, Roy Hitchcock, and William Pittman.

Child care was provided during the afternoon for children from infancy through kindergarten age.

Tax Returns For Farmers Outlined

(Editor's Note.) This is the second in a series of articles prepared by the Collector of Internal Revenue, James G. Smyth of.. the First California District outlining and explaining the preparation and filing of farmer's income tax return.

In claiming credit for dependants all farmers filing income tax returns must follow these rules.

Only closely related persons, regardless of age or physical condition, may be claimed as dependents, provided majority support was furnished and the person claimed as the dependent did not receive $500 of taxable income.

Only one exemption may be claimed for a dependent regardless of their age or physical condition. In all cases the dependent must be closely related and majority support furnished.

Anyone who receives more than $600 of taxable income during the year must file a return. A minor, a person under age, is required to file a tax return the same as any other individual. His earnings, no matter what the source, are his own for tax purposes.

He should file a return and pay a tax, even though his parents may have received the money. It is the parent's duty to see that the minor child, with a taxable income of more than $600 prepares and files a return.

In many cases a farmer may employ his minor son during the harvest as a regular bona fide farm laborer. The father may take the child's wages as a business expense and deduct it as such on his own return. The child must pay tax on his wages if his total income exceeds $600.

However the child's meals and lodging are not deductible by the father, as in the case of other farm laborers, because he is bound by law to support the child and such expenses are personal. Consequently, the child does not have to pay income tax on the value of such meals and lodging.

If a minor child works on a farm or ranch for his parents as a bona fide employee and receives wages, less than $500, the parent may claim him as a dependent, provided it costs more to support the child than the wages he received.

The wages paid domestic help are not deductible on the farmer's tax return. However, during a season when additional hands are employed, domestic help may be assigned to cook for the crew. This portion of the cost for domestic help is deductible.

The farmer may deduct the cost of supplying meals and lodging for farm hands. No deductions may be made for produce raised on the farm.

Watch the Campbell Press for the third article by the Collector of Internal Revenue, James G. Smyth of the First California District, dealing with the preparation and filing of farmer's income tax returns.

Campbell Funeral Services Held For Gipson Bowden

Funeral services were held in Campbell Thursday, for Gipson Bowden, 36, who died in San Jose Tuesday, January 17.

Bowden was a member of Carpenters Union, No. 2006. He is survived by his widow, Mamie of Campbell; two children, Lona Jean and Lannie; and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bowden of Atkins, Arkansas.

Services were held at Rutherford Funeral Home in Campbell at 2:00 in the afternoon. Interment was at the Santa Clara City cemetery.

Aid for Needy Aged Shows Rapid Drop In County for 1949

Applications for aid for needy aged in Santa Clara county dropped to 94 during November, 1949, compared with 620 for January, 1949. California Taxpayers' association reported today, making public its study of the first effects of the passage of Proposition No. 2 by the voters on November 8.

Aged aid case load in the county for November, 1949, was 6109, compared with the 4567 case load for January, the first month under the pension set-up repudiated by the voters in November.

During November, 302 of the total number of people receiving aid as needy aged in the county were under 65 years of age, the association found.

Over the state as a whole, applications for aid as needy aged dropped to 5436 during November, compared with 25,098 for January, 1949, the association said.

Total number of people on the aged aid rolls in California for November reached 268,226, compared with 201,890 for January.

Of the 268,226 aged aid recipients during November, 16,200 were under 65 years of age.

"The voters in November reinstated controls and put administration of aid to the needy aged and blind back under the counties," the Taxpayers' association said.

"First job when the counties take over in March—the effective date of the constitutional amendment adopted in November—will be to study the aged aid rolls and weed out those people who do not qualify for this aid under the reinstated provisions of the law."

THE FARMER'S CORNER

By RALPH H. TAYLOR
(Executive Secretary, Agricultural Council of California).

Pension politics, pension strikes, social security, disability insurance. All over the nation talk is of security—and principally security for the aged. If it were a disease, it might be called "pensionitis".

On the Pacific Coast "pensionitis" has reached a fever pitch. During the past year people of California Oregon and Washington have battled extensively over the problem of the aged.

In Washington, a pension plan is in effect which may completely bankrupt the state. The aged according to reports, can dip into the state till to get funds for mortgage payments, rent, tax assessments, food and clothing, medical an dental care, insurance, hospitalization, home nursing, glasses, artificial limbs and a host of other reasons.

What it all adds up to is a whopping 150 million dollar deficit.

Oregon on the other hand, voted a fantastically liberal pension plan for the aged that has been thrown off the books. The measure simply failed to provide for a source of revenue. Analysts predict, however, that a new iniative will be drawn to remedy that oversight and it is impossible to say what the outcome will be in that state.

Here in Caolifornia a battle royal has just been concluded over the McLain pension plan which was voted into being in November of 1948 and then voted out of existence in November of 1949.

All of these plans, however, are merely outcroppings from the basic problem. No intelligent remedy has yet been found which will truly solve the social problem of a population which is growing ever older.

In 1550, it has been estimated two-thirds of the adult population will be over 35. Out of every 1000 persons, only 333 will be under 35.

Back in 1860, the census bureau reports, approximately half of the adults in the nation were between the ages of 21 and 35.

To further complicate the picture, the advances of medical science are increasing constantly the life expectancy of the people of the United States—and industry is hesitant to employ the aged. Unions too are doing nothing to help the aged gain employment which they would be competent to assume.

There is a place in the American economy for workers nearing "retirement" age. There are jobs they can perform. In fact it has been shown that by assuming less arduous work, by finding ain outlet for their talents, the aged live longer as well as more happily.

Basically then,it would seem to be a problem of realigning the national thinking in conection with the aged—not one of pension schemes and politics. For while there are a few who would deny the right of the aged to aid, if needed, it must be remembered that with the changing age level there are fewer youthful workers to carry the burden of the aged, the young, and the disabled.

Speaking of the practicalities involved in pensions, the Chicago Daily News points out in a recent editorial that "an individual reaching the age of 65 who wished to assume himself an income of $125 a month for the rest of his life would have to pay an insurance company about $19.870. If he started at age 40 to accumulate that $19.870, he would have to save about $597 a year until he retired at the age of 65.

"That illustrates", the Daily News continues, "the problem of the steel industry and others confronted with union demands for pensions. It would be one thing for an employer to start depositing $597 each year toward every employee's pension, but it is quite an other to start paying pensions without the years of accumulated savings".

Concluding, the News states. "The public will pay, through higher prices—pensions given to the steelworkers, just as it—pays in the price of coal the pensions and other welfare benefits won by John L Lewis' miners.

"Thus it seems to us desirable that the social security system should be rexamined with the idea of making it over to provide old-age protection to all workers. That would go a long way toward solving the problem and end the disputes over preferred treatment which we are currently witnessing

"Pensionitis" affects the financial stability of the entire nation al economy. One of the major decisions of this generation will be whether it should be treated sensibly and humanely—or whether pensions are to become the plaything or politicians and labor bosses.

SAN TOMAS PTA HEARS TALK ON CARE OF TEETH

"It's Your Health" was the title of the picture presented by Dr. J. F. Dabney, DDS, who was guest speaker Tuesday night at the San Tomas Parent-Teacher Association meeting.

Dr. Dabney stressed the need to care for the teeth from the time the first baby tooth appears, stating that proper care of the baby teeth is just as important as the care of permanent teeth. He also pointed out that thumb sucking can be harmful not only to the formation of the teeth and gums, but also that it will cause sinus and respiratory troubles.

He concluded his interesting talk by saying that the most important factor concerning teeth is proper diet and the habit of brushing one's teeth just before retiring.

Landscaping Plan

During the business meeting Mr. William Shuey, principal of San Tomas Elementary school, exhibited drawings of the proposed plan for landscaping the school grounds

The PTA voted to have a whist party in February and a theater party in March to raise funds for playground equipment.

An unique smorgasbord was served during the social hour following the meeting.

LEGALS

ORDINANCE NO. 450

AN ORDINANCE REGULATING THE PARKING OF MOTOR VEHICLES UPON ROADS AND HIGHWAYS IN DESIGNATED CONGESTED AREAS IN THE UNINCORPORATED AREAS OF THE COUNTY OF SANTA CLARA; PROVIDING FOR THE ERECTION OF SIGNS TO REGULATE THE PARKING OF MOTOR VEHICLES IN SAID CONGESTED AREAS; REQUIRING COMPLIANCE WITH SAID REGULATIONS AND PROVIDING PENALTIES FOR VIOLATIONS OF THE TERMS HEREOF; AND PROVIDING FOR THE DETERMINATION OF THOSE CERTAIN CONGESTED AREAS TO WHICH THESE REGULATIONS SHALL APPLY.

WHEREAS, the rapid growth of population in the unincorporated areas of the County of Santa Clara has created acute motor vehicle parking problems in certain areas of said county; and,

WHEREAS, it is deemed to be in the best interest of the Public Health, Safety and Welfare to regulate motor vehicle parking in those areas in which said parking problem is now acute, and, in addition, to provide a convenient method for the future enactment of motor vehicle parking regulations in various other areas as the need therefor arises,

NOW, THEREFORE, the Board of Supervisors of the County of Santa Clara, State of California, does ordain as follows:

SECTION 1. WORDS AND PHRASES DEFINED.

A. Definition of Words and Phrases.

(1) The following words and phrases when used in this ordinance, shall for the purpose of this ordinance, have the meanings respectively ascribed to them in this Section.

(2) Whenever any words and phrases used herein are not defined herein but are defined in the State laws regulating the operation of vehicles, any such definition therein shall be deemed to apply to such words and phrases used herein.

B. Board. The Board of Supervisors of the County of Santa Clara, State of California.

C. Congested Area. A congested area is any portion of the unincorporated area of the County of Santa Clara which is described in Section 4 hereof and declared by the Board to require motor vehicle parking regulation.

D. Holidays. Holidays within the meaning of this Ordinance are every Sunday, the first day of January, twenty-second day of February, thirtieth day of May, fourth day of July, first Monday in September, eleventh day of November, last Thursday in November, Good Friday from 12 o'clock noon until the hour of 3 p.m., and every day appointed by the President of the United States or by the Governor of California for a general public fast, thanksgiving or holiday.

If the first day of January, twenty-second day of February, thirtieth day of May, fourth day of July, eleventh day of November or twenty-fifth day of December falls on a Sunday, the Monday following is a holiday.

E. Motor Vehicle. Any conveyance designed or used for the transportation of persons or objects upon any county road or state highway.

F. Official Time Standard. Whenever certain hours are named herein, they shall mean standard time or daylight saving time as may be in current use in this county.

G. Official Signs. All signs, signals, markings and devices not inconsistent with this ordinance placed or erected by authority of a public body or official having jurisdiction for the purpose of regulating the parking of motor vehicles.

H. Park, Parking. When prohibited or limited means the stopping or standing of a vehicle, whether occupied or not, upon a roadway, otherwise than temporarily in obedience of traffic regulations or traffic signs or signals.

I. Person. Every natural person, firm, copartnership, association or corporation.

J. Road Commissioner. The Road Commissioner of the County of Santa Clara, State of California.

K. Vehicle Code. Vehicle Code of the State of California.

SECTION 2. PARKING ADMINISTRATION.

A. The Board may from time to time describe and declare as a congested area any section of the unincorporated area of the county in which has arisen the need for parking regulation.

B. Upon description and declaration of any such section as a congested area, the Board shall direct the Road Commissioner to prepare recommendations as to the streets, or portions thereof, in said congested area which requires regulation. Such recommendations shall include detailed specifications as the the regulations which should be applied to said streets or portions of streets.

C. The Road Commissioner shall submit his recommendations to the Board within thirty (30) days after receipt of notice of direction to prepare same, unless granted further time so to do, and upon approval thereof, the Board shall amend Section 4 hereof, setting forth the description of the congested area and the parking regulations to be made applicable thereto.

D. The Road Commissioner shall erect and maintain all parking control signs, painted curbs, angle parking lines, and other like parking control devices prescribed by Section 4 of this ordinance.

SECTION 3. PARKING REGULATIONS.

A. Any or all of the following time limitations may be placed on motor vehicle parking in congested areas, holidays excepted.

(1) Two hour parking.
(2) One hour parking.
(3) Thirty minute parking.
(4) Fifteen minute parking.
(5) Unless otherwise specified, the limitations set forth in this Paragraph A shall be effective only between the hours of 9 a.m. and 6 p.m.

B. Parking may be prohibited in any sections of congested areas when it is shown that such parking would be detrimental to the best use of the street, or where such prohibition is necessary in order to facilitate the proper movement of traffic or to prevent congestion.

C. Commercial loading zones, passenger loading zones, taxi zones and bus loading zones may be established to regulate parking in any congested area. Parking in said zones shall be subject to the following limitations:

(1) Commercial loading zones: standing or parking in commercial loading zones shall be for the purpose of loading or unloading passengers or freight only, shall not extend beyond the time necessary therefor, and in no event for more than twenty (20) minutes, holidays excepted.

(2) Passenger loading zones: Standing or parking in passenger loading zones shall be for the purpose of loading or unloading passengers only, shall not extend beyond the time necessary therefor, and in no event for more than five (5) minutes, holidays excepted.

(3) Taxi zones: Only commercial taxis may stand or park in any taxi zone at any time.

(4) Bus loading zones: Only commercial or school buses may stand or park in any bus zone at any time.

(5) Effective hours: Unless otherwise specified, the effective hours for commercial and passenger loading zones shall be from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.; provided, however, that when a passenger loading zone is established in front of a theatre, the limitations shall apply at all times except when the theatre is closed.

D. Angle parking may be permitted in any section of a congested area.

SECTION 4. CONGESTED AREAS.

The following are hereby declared to be congested areas in the unincorporated section of the County of Santa Clara, and are made subject to the motor vehicle parking regulations as indicated below:

A. (1) Description: That portion of Campbell Avenue situated in Campbell Township which extends from the intersection of Campbell Avenue with the Santa Clara-Los Gatos Road easterly to the intersection of said Campbell Avenue with the Southern Pacific Railroad Company's right-of-way; that portion of Harrison Avenue in Campbell Township which extends from the intersection of Harrison Avenue with Campbell Avenue northerly a distance of three hundred fifteen (315) feet; and that portion of Central Avenue in Campbell Township which extends from the intersection of Central Avenue with Campbell Avenue northerly a distance of seventy-five (75) feet.

(2) Parking regulations applicable thereto:

(a) Two Hour Parking: Parking along any portion of the northern and southern sides of Campbell Avenue, except as otherwise specified below, is hereby limited to two hours.

(b) Fifteen Minute Parking: Parking in front of the United States Post Office fronting on the south side of Campbell Avenue between First Street and Second Street is hereby limited to fifteen minutes.

(c) No Parking: There shall be no parking at any time in front of the fire station situated on the south side of Campbell Avenue between First Street and Central Avenue, or within fifteen (15) feet of any of the various fire hydrants located in said congested area.

(d) Passenger Loading Zone: That portion of the curb situated in front of the motion picture theatre on the south side of Campbell Avenue between Central Avenue and the intersection of Campbell Avenue with the Southern Pacific Railroad Company's right-of-way is hereby declared to be a passenger loading zone.

(e) Bus Loading Zone: Those portions of the curbs situated on the east and west sides of Central Avenue beginning at a point nine (9) feet north of the curb line of Campbell Avenue and continuing northerly a distance of forty-five (45) feet on the west side and forty-eight (48) feet on the east side, are hereby declared to be Bus Loading Zones.

(f) Taxi Zone: That portion of the curb situated on the west side of Central Avenue beginning at a point fifty-seven (57) feet north of the northern curb line of Campbell Avenue and continuing northerly a distance of twenty-one (21) feet, is hereby declared to be a taxi zone.

(g) Loading Zone: All that portion of the east side of Harrison Avenue beginning at the intersection thereof with Campbell Avenue and continuing northerly a distance of three hundred ten (310) feet is hereby declared to a loading zone.

(h) Angle Parking: All that section of the curb of the northern side of Campbell Avenue upon which abuts the property of the Campbell Union Elementary School is hereby declared to be an angle parking zone; provided, however, that there shall be no time limitations imposed for the parking of motor vehicles therein.

SECTION 5. ERECTION OF SIGNS, PAINTING OF STREETS AND CURBS.

A. Whenever this ordinance designates a parking time limit of two hours, not less than two signs giving notice of said limit and the effective hours thereof shall be erected in each block which is subject to said limitation.

B. Whenever this ordinance designates a parking time limit of one hour, not less than two signs giving notice of said limit and the effective hours thereof shall be erected in each block which is subject to said limitation.

C. Whenever this ordinance designates a parking time limit of thirty minutes, not less than two signs giving notice of said limit and the effective hours thereof shall be erected in each block which is subject to said limitation.

D. Whenever this ordinance designates a parking limit of fifteen minutes, the top and face of the curb of the section so designated shall be painted green, and not less than one sign giving notice of said limit and the effective hours thereof shall be erected in each section subject to said limitation.

E. Whenever this ordinance designates a street or portion thereof where angle parking shall be permitted, the street shall be marked to indicate angle at which vehicles shall be parked, and signs may be erected indicating that angle parking is permitted on said street or portion thereof.

F. Whenever this ordinance establishes a commercial loading zone, the top and face of the curb of the section so established shall be painted yellow, and one sign shall be erected at each end of said zone giving notice of the nature and effective hours thereof.

G. Whenever this ordinance establishes a passenger loading zone, the top and face of the curb of the section so established shall be painted white, and one sign shall be erected at each end of said zone, giving notice of the nature and effective hours thereof.

H. Whenever this ordinance establishes a taxi zone, the top and face of the curb of the section so established shall be painted white, and one sign shall be erected in said zone giving notice of the nature and effective hours thereof.

I. Whenever this ordinance establishes a bus zone, the top and face of the section so established shall be painted red, the words "bus stop" shall be painted in yellow thereon, and appropriate signs may be erected to indicate the nature thereof.

J. Whenever this ordinance prohibits motor vehicle parking in certain sections, the top and face of the curb of the section in which such parking is prohibited shall be painted red and signs indicating the nature and effective hours thereof shall be erected at appropriate intervals in said section.

SECTION 6. ENFORCEMENT OF PARKING REGULATION; OBEDIENCE TO PARKING REGULATIONS; EXCEPTIONS FOR CERTAIN VEHICLES; PENALTIES, FOR VIOLATIONS OF PARKING REGULATIONS.

A. It shall be the duty of the local Constables, the Sheriff, all Deputy Sheriffs and all special Deputy Sheriffs appointed for such purpose to enforce all parking regulations of this county and all State vehicle laws applicable to parking in this county.

B. (1) Whenever this ordinance establishes any time limits for motor vehicle parking, and authorized signs and/or curb markings have been erected giving notice thereof, no person shall stop, stand, or park any motor vehicle in violation of said time limits during the effective hours thereof.

(2) Whenever this ordinance establishes commercial loading zones, passenger loading zones, taxi zones or bus zones, and authorized signs and/or curb markings have been erected giving notice thereof, no person shall stop, stand, or park any motor vehicle in violation of the regulations specified herein for said zones during the effective hours thereof.

(3) Whenever this ordinance prohibits motor vehicle parking, and the authorized signs and/or curb markings have been erected giving notice thereof, no person shall stop, stand, or park any motor vehicle in violation of said prohibition during the effective hours thereof.

(4) Whenever this ordinance permits angle parking, and authorized signs and/or street markings have been erected giving notice thereof, no person shall stop, stand, or park any motor vehicle other than in the areas and at the angle to the curb or edge of the roadway indicated by such signs or markings.

(5) It is the duty of all persons to abide by the terms of this ordinance, and it is a misdemeanor to do any act forbidden or fail to perform any act required in this ordinance.

(6) The provisions of this ordinance shall not relieve any person from the duty to observe any applicable provisions of the Vehicle Code.

(7) (a) The provisions of this ordinance regulating the parking and standing of vehicles shall not apply to any vehicle of the Sheriff's Office or Fire Department, any public ambulance or any public utility vehicle or any private ambulance, which public utility vehicle or private ambulance has qualified as an authorized emergency vehicle, when any vehicle mentioned in this section is operated in the manner specified in the Vehicle Code in response to an emergency call.

(b) The provisions of this ordinance regulating the parking or standing of vehicles shall not apply to any vehicle of a county department or public utility while necessarily in use for construction or repair.

(c) The foregoing exemptions shall not, however, protect the driver of any such vehicle from the consequences of his wilful disregard for the safety of others.

C. Unless another penalty is expressly provided by law, every person convicted of a violation of any provision of this ordinance shall be punished by a fine of not more than $500.00 or by imprisonment for not more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

SECTION 7. EFFECT OF ORDINANCE.

A. If any section, subsection, clause or phrase of this Ordinance is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Ordinance. The Board hereby declares that it would have passed this Ordinance and each section, subsection, sentence, clause, and phrase thereof, irrespective of the fact that any one or more sections, subsections, sentences, clauses or phrases be declared unconstitutional.

B. Short Title. This Ordinance may be known and cited as the Parking Ordinance for the County of Santa Clara.

PASSED AND ADOPTED by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Santa Clara, State of California, this 16th day of January, 1950, by the following vote:

AYES: Supervisors Campbell, McKinnon, Pfeifle, Wool, Brown.
NOES: Supervisors None.

Sorghums are greatly inclined to mix, and that is the reason why one gets so many freak plants from common seed, which is good enough for feeding.

Pert, blonde Lucienne Dorie, of 482 Stevens Road, Mountain View, has been chosen to spark the current 1950 March of Dimes campaign in Santa Clara county. Lucienne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Dorie, is one of the 74 Santa Clara county residents stricken by polio in the 1949 season, the greatest polio epidemic year in the United States. Three-year-old Lucienne was completely paralyzed from the waist down when stricken, but is now only slightly affected thanks to the work of the March of Dimes funds collected in the county. Lucienne sets a good example while she urges everyonoe to join the March of Dimes.

POPULAR RECORDS

Red Foley thinks he has a sure fire recipe for a hit tune and this is the way it goes. Take a generous portion of an old standard hit (Darktown Strutters Ball) add a good measure of sound effects (if the public went for whip cracking in such a big way they will probably also like the slapping of a shoe shine rag) and then top it off with some mightly cute lyrics. The result: CHATTANOOGIE SHOE SHINE BOY (Decca 46205). Looks like a platter that is destined to make quite a stir.

IT'S GREAT TO BE ALIVE & THEY TALK A DIFFERENT LANGUAGE (Capitol 793) are two very nifty tunes from the movie TEXAS LI'L DARLIN' presented for your listening pleasure by Jo Stafford and Johnny Mercer. The top deck is a lilting tune with a bouncy beat and the flip has some grand yodeling by Mercer and for the first time to my knowledge yodeling is used as an accompaniment to the lyrics.

To get your toes tappin' and your fingers drummin' there is a grand instrumental platter by the George Shearing Quintet: NOTHING BUT D. BEST & THE CONTINENTAL (M-G-M 10596). The top side I think is far the best and the drums here are something special; it is in speed tempo with a great upbeat. The flip is in slow blues time with George's great piano shining thru.

CHILDREN'S RECORDS

HOWDY DOODY & THE AIR-O-DOODLE (RCA Victor Y-397) is taken from the very popular television show, Howdy Doody, and if your children watch his show, they will go for this set in a big way. If they are not yet acquainted with Howdy Doody they are in for a treat.

ANIMAL FAIR songs for children by Burl Ives (Columbia MJV-59) is one children's set that will be mighty easy on the parents' ears as well as sure to please the small fry. Parents of course have to listen over and over to the records the kids enjoy and it is swell to find a set that won't set you to chewing nails at the endless repeats.

CLASSICAL RECORDS

1950 is the year of the Bach Bicentennial and a great many treats are in store this year for lovers of the great master's music. Two hundred years after the death of this great genius the entire music scene is still dominated by his shadow. Like all organists, the PASSACAGLIA & FUGUE in C MINOR has long been dear to my heart. In the orchestral transcription by Respighi, played by the San Francisco Orchestra under the direction of Pierre Monteux (Victor DM-1340) the P & F take on new beauty. It is music that uplifts and awes.

The best piano tunes recorded that I have yet heard are on an LP disc just released by Columbia. Schumann: FANTASIA IN C. MAJOR, Rudolf Firkusny pianist, (ML-4285). It is a pity that Firkusny does not do justice to this fantasia and to the superb recording technique. The recording engineers really did a wonderful job on the disc, however they cannot make up for the shortcomings of the artist. Firkusny does some fast and furious pounding here and as far as he is concerned the Fantasia is an emotional pyrotechnical set-piece.

Nathan Milstein, violinist, has just issued his first RCA Victor recording. The number chosen for this first release is the GLAZOUNOFF: VIOLIN CONCERTO, Op 82. This concerto is one of the staples in the modern concerto repertoire and requires a soloist with a warm sensuous tone and a sterling virtuoso technique. Milstein fills the bill admirably on both these scores so the result is most satisfying. The music runs to soft, juicy chromaticisms, melting melodic phrases and rich, rhapsodical emotion. This is rather a rich diet, but I believe you will enjoy it too.

If you have become involved in the argument over the relative merits of Erna Sack and Lily Pons you will be interested to know that it will at last be possible to compare the two voices singing the same selection. London is just releasing a disc by Erna Sack singing the BELL SONG from Lakme.

Cupertino Grange Committees Named by Sheffer

Principal business on the agenda of Cupertino Grange 739 at the first regular session of 1950, Friday, January 13, was the announcements of standing committees for the year by Master Dwight Sheffer. The following committees were announced: Literary, Good of the Order, Legislative, Agriculture, Conservation, and Poultry. All the new officers were at their stations except Gatekeeper Lonnie McAllister and Pomona Dorothy Sorensen who were being installed at Morgan Hill.

F. L. Wood announced the start of an attendance contest which will run for an undecided length of time with the losing team furnishing a dinner for the winners. The captains of the respective teams are Master Dwight Sheffer and Overseer Marvin Blair, with Elizabeth and Frederick Wood acting as referees.

The Worthy Master spoke briefly on grange matters during the lecturer's hour. The lecturer announced that Master Martin Walsh of Orchard City Grange will show his travelogue movies at the next meeting on January 27. Committee chairmen and members are requested that sales slips be turned in on or before January 27. It is hoped that all members will enter their slips so the grange can finish first in the state instead of the county as they did last year.

Refreshments were served by a committee consisting of Elizabeth and Frederick Wood, Ernest and Frieda Angelo and Nella Seevers.

All members are urgently requested to attend all meetings and help their team win the attend-

Maugham's Film, 'Quartet' Coming To Saratoga

W. Somerset Maugham's "Quartet," an Eagle Lion Films release, will play at the Saratoga Theater January 24, 25 and 26.

Here is Maugham at his best in four short stories whose central characters are of the English middle class, each a telling dramatic experience. Maugham fans will find favorites among the four — "Alien Corn," "The Kite," "The Facts of Life" and "The Colonel's Lady."

As an example of the finished story telling which can be done in films, this J. Arthur Rank film rates with "Hamlet."

G. I. Dividend Checks Are Not Assignable

Veteran's administration today warned that dividends paid to veterans on their GI insurance are not assignable under the law, and that dividend checks may not be withheld from them as security for indebtedness due an individual or firm.

V-A issued this warning after noting that some veterans had directed that their checks be mailed to certain business establishments in various locations.

V-A said the agency has no choice but to honor such requests since the veteran has the right to have his check mailed to any address he designates.

However no one has the legal right to withold dividend checks from veterans after receipt, either for the purpose of procuring settlement of a debt or for any other reason.

PTA OF FREMONT STARTS DRIVE TO PURCHASE ORGAN

A project sponsored by the Parent-Teacher Association of Fremont Union High School to purchase a Hammond electric organ to be dedicated as a memorial was started Wednesday, January 11, when the group met at the high school auditorium.

The organ is to be dedicated to the memory of the late Mrs. Frances Stevens and Mrs. Florence Dorais. Mrs. Harry Thompson, president of the Fremont PTA, outlined the plan to the prep student body and at the meeting of the parent group.

Mrs. Thompson pointed out that each class and organization in the school must support this project if the plan is to become a reality this spring. An account has been opened in a Sunnyvale bank in the name of the memorial fund.

Plans call for the dedication to Mrs. Dorais and Mrs. Stevens, both of whom passed away recently. Mrs. Dorais, a musician of note, was the wife of Gene Dorais, mechanical drawing instructor at Fremont, and Mrs. Stevens was the wife of the school's principal, A. C. Stevens Jr.

One of the first donations to the project was contributed by the senior class, which will make the presentation in the form of a class gift. The school board and the Thespians have also pledged contributions for the instrument.

Gifts are also being received from community groups and individuals outside the Fremont school.

Health Light for Winter Months!

Infrared heat lamps have dozens of heating uses around the house. Every member of your family will find numerous uses for them.

A sunlamp provides ultraviolet rays like summer sunshine. Aids in building strong bones and teeth. On doctor's advice good for babies.

Bright-white light from a new style lamp bulb. Ideal replacement lamp for table lights that seem dim.

Suffer from muscular aches and pains about the shoulders and neck? Bake them out with a heat lamp.

Babies gurgle with delight when their backs are bathed by the soothing, healthful rays of an electric heat lamp. Grownups like this sunny, electric back warming, too. You get this heat quickly and cheaply from electric heat lamps or sun lamps because they are easy to use and cost less than a penny an hour to operate. You will find heat lamps useful too, for warming cold clothing, drying damp hair and helping ward off winter colds.
